Things to do 2017

Year-round

Rimini, Via L. Tonini 1, Piazza Ferrari The City Museum and the Surgeon's House

The Domus del Chirurgo [Surgeon's House] and the City Museum invite you to visit an excavation area where an ancient doctor's house has yielded many pieces of medical equipment from Roman times, now on exhibit in the museum. Here, in addition to the archaeological section, you can admire art from the Middle Ages and Renaissance era, with paintings from the Rimini School of the fourteenth century, the famous Pietà by Bellini and works by Giovanni Bellini, Ghirlandaio, Cagnacci and Guercino. The creativity of the 1900s dominates in the section dedicated to René Gruau, a legend in global graphics, and in the hall of the "Book of Dreams" by Federico Fellini.

Admission tickets: € 7 full price and € 5 reduced price. Entrance to the museums and the Domus is free on Wednesdays and the first Sunday of the month. There are guided tours of the archaeological site (included in the admission ticket) on weekends or evenings during July and August. Closed on Mondays.

First Sunday of every month (except in August)

Rimini - The Tempio Malatestiano Piero and Sigismondo in Renaissance Rimini

Every first Sunday of the month, a cultural walking tour retraces the footsteps of Piero della Francesca and Sigismondo Pandolfo Malatesta. The tour, organized by the art historian Michela Cesarini, starts from the Tempio Malatestiano designed by Leon Battista Alberti for the lord of Rimini. The church houses the portrait of Sigismondo painted by Piero della Francesca in 1451, and the 'sinopia' of the painting in the reliquary room. The second part of the tour is Castel Sismondo and then the City Museum, where valuable Malatesta medals reveal the primary role Sigismondo played in the military-political chess game of the Italian Renaissance.

3.30 pm. Fee charged. For further information and reservations:

The Circus 8-1/2 of flavours. Things made with the hands and heart. Rimini becomes once again the Italian capital of style with the Circus 8-1/2 of flavours with cooking shows by chefs, gourmet street food, extraordinary ice creams and a market for farm products, artisans and designers.

Massimo Bottura calls together 12 leading chefs of the Emilia Romagna Region to meet 12 young international chefs, in and out of a Fellini-style circus, for an event that celebrates the heroes and the richness of a unique area. Around the circus, special gourmet street food stalls interpret street foods with the best ingredients from Emilia and Romagna and a 'star-studded' ice cream parlour brings together the creativity of chefs with the skill of ice-cream makers from the Carpiigiani Gelato University. In front of the Circus, there is a market of special foods with the best PDO and PGI products from the region and Matryoshka, the lab store of inventors and designers with their creations distinguished by the 'handmade' label.

600 Years of Sigismondo Pandolfo Malatesta. The birth of Humanism

Born on June 19, 1417, Sigismondo Pandolfo Malatesta was a modern figure in his gigantic contradictions: fierce warrior and tireless patron. He had a profound impact on the history of Rimini by commissioning works of art - for example, the Tempio Malatestiano - as well as in his changing fortunes as a leader, through a complex era torn by clashes and wars. In the year of the 600th anniversary of his birth, the Municipality of Rimini celebrates Sigismondo with a series of initiatives that start on June 18 and continue until October 2018, when there will be an event marking the 550th anniversary of his death.

23rd June - 15th September 2017, every Friday night

Rimini, Tempio Malatestiano, Sant'Agostino Church
Mirabilia Urbis

Routes for discovering sacred art treasures in Rimini's historic centre

The third edition of the initiative that offers, through evening guided tours, a different way of enjoying, both culturally and spiritually, the rich heritage of sacred art that the city of Rimini has to offer. The routes include visits to emblematic landmarks of this heritage, such as the Tempio Malatestiano, the city's Basilica Cathedral which is a wonderful example of the early Italian Renaissance, and the Sant'Agostino Church, an exemplary testimony of Rimini's fourteenth century School of Art. Following the success of previous years, in summer 2017 the tours will be expanded to offer visits to other religious buildings of the city. The tours, led by specialist guides, are promoted by the cultural association La Fabbrica del Tempio, with the support of the Diocese of Rimini and in collaboration with the

"A.Marvelli" Istituto Superiore di Scienze Religiose (Rimini Institute of Higher Education for Religious Sciences).
Times: 9pm -11pm. Tickets are available one hour before the tour from the infopoint at Tempio Malatestiano and upon booking. Info: +39 0541 53399 (Tourist Information).
