JUNE -
DECEMBER

ALL YEAR FELLINI 100. A YEAR-LONG BIRTHDAY (1920 – 2020)

A year in the name of Fellini's "You can imagine anything", to celebrate the great Director from Rimini, on the centenary of his birth. Among the various summer events, worthy of mention is the Festival held at the Corte degli Agostiniani, between July and August, with 8 films in their version restored for the centenary. The events will culminate in the opening of the Museo Internazionale Federico Fellini.

Info: www.federicofellini.it

ALL YEAR RIMINI, VIA L. TONINI 1 AND PIAZZA FERRARI MUNICIPAL MUSEUMS AND SURGEON'S HOUSE

The Surgeon's House and the City Museum invite you to visit the excavation site on Piazza Ferrari, where the taberna medica with the richest Roman surgical kit known - and now exhibited in the City Museum close-by - was found. Here, Rimini's history is told through the archaeological and the medieval section. The Museum offers you the thrills to discover the Malatestian Rimini, through the paintings of the 14th Century Rimini School, Bellini's famous Pietà, the works by Agostino di Duccio and Ghirlandaio, and the paintings of the 17th Century Romagna School, in the works by Cagnacci, Centino and Guercino.

Opening hours: Tuesday to Sunday, 10:00 AM - 7:00 PM. Closed on Monday (except on bank holidays).

Until 31 August, night opening on Fridays and Wednesday (9:00 - 11:00 PM):

On Wednesday nights, free admission to the Surgeon's House and the Museum.

Admission fee: € 7 full price, € 5 discounted price. Free on the first Sunday of every month.

The Museo degli Sguardi, one of the main Italian museums dedicated to non-European cultures and housed in Villa Alvarado, on Covignano hills, can be visited on request at the same opening hours. For the entire summer (until 26 August) on Wednesday, at 10:30 AM, there is a free guided tour of the Surgeon's House

(up to 12 participants).

Booking is required

36TH EDITION: SCREENINGS,
SHOWS, MEETINGS
WITH THE AUTHORS,
EXHIBITS AND INSTALLATIONS.

The International Festival of Animation Films, Comics and Games transforms and multiplies its events over the course of 6 months, between July and December, with a formula combining live and online events. On the Festival's digital channels, you can see the over 300 competing shorts films, and events in live streaming with directors, animators, screenwriters and journalists. In addition, TV channel IcaroTV will feature Cartoon Club Show, showing the best films of the Festival and studio guests. The first phase is held from 15 to 19 July in the Augustine Cloister (Via Cairoli 68), the open-air film arena that every day hosts screenings and live performances with Rimini's Scuola del Fumetto. In the year of his centenary, on Saturday 18 July, Cartoon Club pays homage to Fellini with "Chicken and Friends. Omaggio a Fellini", an original show combining live drawing and music. The Augeo Art Space Gallery (Corso d'Augusto 217, 6:00 PM) will host meetings with the authors, and for two Thursday nights (16 and 23 July), the Festival will host special events for children and families (Cloister of the San Giuliano Church). Between 15 and 30 July, the Municipal Museums host the amusing exhibition dedicated to Silver and his famous character: Lupo Alberto.

The 2020 Edition billboard is signed by street artist Eron, and a site-specific temporary installation will be exhibited in an open-air space in the city. Cartoon Club will resume its activities on 28 October, the day when animation films are celebrated worldwide, with screenings and events in different places of the Rimini province, and in movie theatres in the historical centre.

RIMINI'S PALACONGRESSI
MEETING FOR FRIENDSHIP
BETWEEN PEOPLES

Summer festival with events, exhibits, music and shows. A markedly international festival, a melting pot of culturally-diverse accounts and experiences: a vibrant and unique event, it tackles crucial topics, in a free open dialogue with the most interesting cultural, political and religious figures.
The 41th edition manifesto, called 'Privi di Meraviglia, restiamo sordi al Sublime' (Void of Wonder, we remain deaf to the Sublime), is a restyling of the Meeting's first edition in 1980, to underline the continuity of a history spanning several decades. Hope, faith, care, vision, renovation and subsidiarity are the key worlds to reflect upon what is happening right now in Italy and in Europe. The conferences and some of the exhibits will be in digital version only.

AND PRESENT
VISITS OF
THE RIMINI MUSEUMS
FOR SUMMER 2020

From Caesar's Rimini to Fellini's Rimini, these tours unveil two thousand years of history, through the figures and the eras that made this City known throughout the world. A rich calendar of events throughout the summer, including the chance to visit the City Museum, the Surgeon's House and the Galli Theatre - a window on 19th Century Rimini brought back to its ancient splendour - at night.

Here are all the weekly events:

WEDNESDAY, 9:30 PM
A GLIMPSE ON ROMAN RIMINI

Meeting point: Surgeon's House

A tour that starts at the extraordinary Surgeon's House archaeological site - where amazing mosaics and frescoes were found - to reach Tiberius Bridge - the two-thousand-old stone bridge over the Marecchia river, the ancient Ariminus that gave the name to the Roman city.

Duration: 1 hour

WEDNESDAY, 9:30 PM,
FRIDAY, 5:30 PM
THE GALLI THEATRE

Meeting point: Galli Theatre

The history of 19th century Theatre, designed by Modena architect Luigi Poletti and inaugurated in 1857 by Giuseppe Verdi, crosses the history of Rimini and one of its most prestigious spaces, the municipal square, and with the events of World War II and the debate that accompanied the Theatre's reconstruction "as it was and where it was", in 2018.

Duration: 45 min

THURSDAY, 10:30 AM
FROM CAESAR TO FELLINI
2000 YEARS OF HISTORY
BETWEEN THE HALLS
OF THE CITY MUSEUM

Meeting point: City Museum

The great people that marked the history of the city, making it grow and known throughout the world, in a visit halfway between archaeology and art: from Caesar to Augustus, from Ariminum Surgeon, to the painters of the 14th Century Rimini School, from Sigismondo Pandolfo Malatesta to the many artists active at the Malatestian court, from Guido Cagnacci to the Guercino, De Pisis and Federico Fellini.

Duration: 2 hours

THURSDAY, 5:30 PM
GREAT ARTISTS
AT THE MALATESTA COURT
AND IN 17TH CENTURY RIMINI

Meeting point: City Museum

The painters of the 14th Rimini School, Giovanni Bellini, Agostino di Duccio, Ghirlandaio: many masters called to work for the Malatesta Court, that the Museum preserves in his halls, as evidence of the patronage of Rimini's nobles, just like the many painters from the Emilia-Romagna region, such as Cagnacci, Guercino and Centino, active in Rimini in a troubled period, the 17th Century.

Duration: 1.5 hours

FRIDAY, 5:30 PM
FELLINI AND GRUAU.
TWO PEOPLE FROM RIMINI
IN THE WORLD

Meeting point: City Museum

Rimini's genius as embodied in two famous figures that found their fortune by leaving their native town, while keeping a strong emotional bond with the culture they were born into. A tour to discover Federico's "Book of Dreams" and Renato's graphic arts.

Duration: 1 hour

SATURDAY, 10:30 AM
BEING A DOCTOR
IN THE 3RD CENTURY AD:
THE ARIMINUM SURGEON

Meeting point: Surgeon's House

The history of a great surgeon who came from far away, told through the "clues" found in the Surgeon's House archaeological site, which gave us the richest and most complete surgical instrument set of antiquity.

Duration: 1 hour Info: Booking is required
